

2018 CCPA SPRING INSTITUTE

Saturday, March 24th

University of Southern California

INTERSECTIONALITY & INCLUSION

8:30 AM	Check-In & Continental Breakfast
9:00 AM	Welcome & Opening Keynote featuring Dr. Charles H.F. Davis
10:30 AM	Toward a More Inclusive Climate: Uncovering the Effects of Christian Privilege on College Campuses	Learning Through Narratives: Contemporary Experiences of Undocumented Students	Is She Armed & Dangerous? Removing Roadblocks that Exclude Black Women from the Decision Making Table	Intersectionality in Student Conduct
11:30 AM	Student Parental Inclusivity Within Higher Education	What Intersectionality Means for People With Privilege	Rethinking Equity and Inclusion Through a Design Thinking Lens	Intentionality and Intersectionality: A collaborative approach to enhance First-Generation student success
12:30 PM	Lunch at the USC Village
1:30 PM	Open CCPA Business Meeting	Dreaming Big with Dream Scholars	Infusing Diversity and Inclusion in Job Descriptions, Performance Reviews, and Resource Allocation	Disability Identity: How to serve and empower students with disabilities beyond the classroom
2:30 PM	International Student Intersectionality in an Age of Political Volatility	Intersectionality and Inclusion for Formerly Incarcerated Minorities in Higher Education	The Experiences of Gay Hmong Men: An Exploratory Study	Mid-Level Practitioners in the Community College: Discussions Around the Table
3:45 PM	Closing & Keynote featuring Dr. Craig Elliot
5:00 PM	Social Hour at the USC Village

